EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

From time to time, the Standards Board issues a bulletin containing information about recent developments related to probity and ethics.

When it was initially produced, the emphasis of the bulletin was as a technical update for Monitoring Officers. However, over time the content has become of more interest to a wider audience and therefore the latest edition is attached for information.

If Members find the content useful, it can be regularly submitted to the Committee.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the Committee notes the content of Bulletin 35 from the Standards Board and indicates whether it would wish future editions to be placed on the agenda.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS:

CORPORATE STRATEGY (RELEVANCE TO): An Efficient and Effective Council.
